Approved by the faculty of Georgia State University, Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions:

April 4, 2013
ARTICLE I
PURPOSE

Section 1. To provide the essential framework governing the composition, organization, and functions of the faculty of the Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions (BFLSNHP) that is composed of the School of Nursing, Departments of Nutrition, Physical Therapy and Respiratory Therapy as established July 1, 2011.

Section 2. To enable the faculty of the BFLSNHP to implement the authority granted to it by Article IX, Sections 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 as contained in the Statutes of Georgia State University.

Section 3. These bylaws and amendments thereto hereafter adopted are subordinate to the Policies of the Board of Regents and the Statutes of Georgia State University.
ARTICLE II
MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Faculty of the BFLSNHP are those persons who have been designated as such by the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia. When all voting faculty members of the BFLSNHP meet together to conduct the business of the School, they should be referred to as the Faculty.

Section 2. Voting faculty are defined as personnel of Georgia State University in the BFLSN&HP who have been appointed to faculty rank at 0.38 EFT (equivalent full time) or greater by the Board of Regents. Individuals holding adjunct, visiting, or part-time instructor rank shall be entitled to be present at faculty meetings and shall have the right to be heard, but shall not have voting privileges.
ARTICLE III

AUTHORITY OF THE FACULTY

Section 1. Subject to the Statutes of Georgia State University and the Bylaws of the Byrdine F. Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions, the faculty shall legislate the educational policies and internal affairs of the BFLSNHP.

Section 2. The faculty shall function through departments and committees. Faculty members may refer issues concerning educational policies and internal affairs to the Assistant Dean of their unit (Nursing or Health Professions), or to a member of the responsible committee, whichever process is appropriate.

Section 3. The voting faculty may, within their jurisdiction:
   A. adopt and amend the bylaws of the BFLSNHP;
   B. elect the members for standing committees and other committees of the Faculty;
   C. elect a parliamentarian who shall serve at all Faculty meetings;
   D. vote on issues presented to the faculty for action; and
   E. present pertinent issues to the Faculty of the BFLSNHP.

Section 4. In any election a majority of the votes cast, provided a quorum is present, shall be required for election. When urgent business of the BFLSNHP requires a faculty or staff vote and a Faculty meeting is not scheduled, on-line voting can be conducted. Urgent School business is an issue that requires action before the next scheduled BFLSNHP faculty meeting. The committee chair or unit head who needs to conduct a vote should contact the Dean who will determine if the action is urgent. The Dean will contact the School’s website coordinator with a one (1) business day lead time and she/he can set up a secure, anonymous survey. The survey will be sent to faculty via email with a secure link for voting. Faculty and/or staff will have three (3) business days to cast their vote. It will be assumed that a quorum is present as the survey will go to all faculty for the desired vote. A simple majority is required for most issues to pass. Bylaws changes require a two-thirds majority.

Section 5. In matters coming within the jurisdiction of faculty governance, the BFLSNHP shall follow a committee review procedure. Unless the faculty by a two-thirds majority votes to suspend committee review of a specific matter and act as a committee of the whole, all matters of substance shall be submitted for committee study, recommendations, and/or action prior to definitive action by the Faculty. Standing committee business may be initiated by each committee, by the Dean, by the faculty of a unit within the School, an individual member of the School faculty, or by a vote of the Faculty.

Section 6. Until such time as the faculty suspends this pattern, the committees listed in Article V. of the bylaws shall constitute the standing Faculty governance system of the School.
ARTICLE IV

FACULTY OFFICERS AND CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

Section 1. Officers of the Faculty

A. Chairperson. In accordance with University Statutes, Article VIII, Section 3.C., the presiding officer of all Faculty meetings shall be the Dean. In the absence of the Chairperson, a designee of the Chairperson shall preside.

B. Secretary. The Secretary of the faculty will be elected annually by faculty and will assume the responsibilities of the office at the end of the spring term. The Secretary of the faculty will serve for one year. The Secretary of the Faculty will be supported administratively by the Dean's Office. The Secretary shall notify the faculty in writing of the date, time, place and agenda of all School faculty meetings in accordance with Article IV. Section 3.A. of these bylaws. The Secretary shall prepare and send copies of minutes of the Faculty meetings to each faculty member and administrative officers of the BFLSNHP in accordance with Article IV. Section 3.E. of these bylaws.

C. A parliamentarian, elected from the faculty, shall be present at all faculty meetings to advise on questions of parliamentary law and procedure and shall advise the presiding officer prior to rulings on controversial questions. The Parliamentarian will also document whether or not a quorum is present at all meetings; this will be noted in the minutes of all faculty meetings. The most recent edition of Robert’s Rule of Orders will be used by the Parliamentarian to ensure meetings are conducted appropriately.
Section 2. Frequency of Faculty Meetings. The faculty of the BFLSNHP shall hold at least one regular meeting during each semester of the academic year. The meeting dates for each academic year shall be proposed and established by the Dean. Special meetings may be called by initiative of the Dean and must be called when at least twenty (20) percent of the faculty members eligible to vote petition the Chairperson for a meeting. The petition shall specify the purpose of the meeting.

Section 3. Order and Conduct of Meetings.

A. All members of the faculty shall be informed by the Secretary of the faculty of all regularly scheduled meetings by written communication at least five (5) working days prior to the scheduled meeting time. Faculty shall receive written notification of special meetings at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the scheduled meeting time. Notification of all meetings shall specify the time, date, and place of these meetings and the agenda for the meeting.

B. The text of any motions or resolutions that are to be proposed by committees at a Faculty meeting shall be provided to the Dean as Chairperson of the faculty meeting ten (10) working days before the meeting and shall be forwarded to faculty members at least five (5) working days prior to the meeting, as attachments to the agenda. Similarly, persons requiring presentation time and/or a vote at regular faculty meetings, or those wishing to make reports to the Faculty, shall submit items with supporting documents as needed to the Chairperson ten (10) working days before the meeting, for attachment to the agenda. The purpose of special meetings shall be stated in the notice to the faculty; materials to be discussed and/or voted upon at special meetings shall be distributed at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to said meetings as attachments to the agenda.

C. The order of business at faculty meetings shall be in accordance with the agenda. All meetings shall be conducted according to the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order, revised.

D. Faculty shall receive a copy of the minutes of any meeting within fifteen (15) working days following the meeting, with a copy simultaneously being kept on file with the in the Dean’s Office.

Section 4. Quorum. A quorum is defined as a simple majority of the voting members of the faculty employed for the current semester. The Parliamentarian will publish the number of voting members and the number required for a quorum in the minutes of the first faculty meeting each semester.
ARTICLE V

STANDING AND SPECIAL COMMITTEES

Section 1. The Standing Committees composed of Faculty of the BFLSNHP shall be:

- Academic Affairs Committee
- Bylaws Committee
- Faculty Advisory Committee
- Faculty Appeals Committee
- Faculty Promotions and Tenure Committee
- Graduate Faculty Committee
- International Services Committee
- Research Committee
- Student Appeals Committee
- Student Services Committee

Section 2. Membership of Standing Committees.

A. It is the desire to have at least one faculty member from Nursing and at least one member from Health Professions on each committee. At-large faculty members and one (1) alternate to each of the following standing committees shall be elected by the Faculty at the last meeting of the academic year or by the end of Spring Semester: Academic Affairs, Bylaws, Faculty Appeals, Faculty Advisory, Graduate Faculty, Research, Student Appeals, and Student Services. The Faculty Promotions and Tenure Committees members shall be elected in the manner described in Section 4.E. All persons elected to committees other than the Faculty Promotions and Tenure Committees shall assume their responsibilities at the beginning of the following Fall semester and serve for two years.

Members of the Faculty Promotions and Tenure Committees shall begin their service at the beginning of the Spring semester of the academic year for which they are elected. To provide continuity of membership in constituting new committees or reconstituting existing committees, the committee shall be initially divided in two groups. Lots will be drawn so that approximately half the members of the committee serve one-year terms and the remainder of the members serves two-year terms so that not all terms of office expire at the same time.

B. The Office of the Dean shall maintain a record of the members of each standing committee to include the sequence of elections and the respective terms of those elected.

C. Students to serve on committees shall be nominated by departments/schools and nominations shall be submitted to the Student Services Committee, which will then select and appoint students to the various committees during spring semester for the next academic year with the exception of the Student Services Committee. Student representation on the Student Services Committee shall be determined as follows:

(1) By September 15th, each student organization faculty advisor nominates one or more officers to serve on the Committee.

(2) The faculty members of the Student Services Committee will review the nominations and appoint student committee members to serve for the academic year.

D. The Dean, Associate Deans, Assistant Deans and Department Heads are not eligible to serve on the Faculty Promotions and Tenure Committee, Faculty Appeals Committee, Student Appeals Committee or Faculty Advisory Committee, but may serve on the Bylaws Committee, Student Services Committee, Research Committee, Academic Affairs Committee, Graduate Faculty Committee, and the Committee for Review of Candidates to Rank of Professor.

E. At the end of each Spring semester, the out-going chair shall deposit committee materials and official records in the Office of the Dean. For storage purposes, the outgoing chair shall inform the Office of the Dean whether or not the materials involve confidential data.

F. To facilitate committee work, each outgoing committee chair will meet with the incoming committee members prior to the end of the spring semester to orient the committee on unresolved actions and any other matters. This will allow the committee to work with the dean over the summer to create their action items for the upcoming academic year. The out-going committee chair is responsible for providing an orientation on any outstanding committee items requiring action in the upcoming year.

G. At its first meeting of the academic year, each committee shall:

(1) elect a chairperson from among its membership,
(2) determine how to cover secretarial duties,
(3) review the policies and procedures of the committee, and
(4) provide a membership orientation to the functions of the committee.

The names of the elected officers of committees shall be reported to the Office of the Dean who will keep the information on file, as well as distribute it to the appropriate individuals. This should be done within 5 business days after the first organization meeting occurs.
H. Faculty vacancies that occur during an elected term of office shall be filled by the alternate member of that committee as follows:

1) The chair of the committee shall notify the alternate member of the committee of the need for his/her services.

2) If the vacancy extends beyond one academic semester, the alternate member shall serve the remainder of the term on the standing committee.

Section 3. Standing Committee Meetings.

A. Each committee shall determine the frequency and schedule of its meetings but shall have at least one meeting at the beginning of its term of service each academic year. Meetings may be called by the chairperson or by a majority of the membership of the committee. Meetings shall be conducted according to the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order. A committee quorum shall consist of a majority of its members.

B. Standing committees shall keep minutes of all meetings, including a list of members present and members absent. The minutes shall include attachments or otherwise the text of any actions taken by the committee that propose or implement changes in committee or School policy or procedure. It shall be the responsibility of the Office of the Dean to maintain the official copies of all such policy or procedure documents, and to have the current version of each posted on the School's web site. Each committee’s chair shall deposit the minutes of the committee meetings with the Dean’s Office within five (5) working days following the date of their approval. All approved standing committee minutes shall be posted to the School’s website within five (5) working days of their receipt by the Assistant to the Dean. Minutes shall be kept on permanent file in the Dean’s office and shall be accessible to all members of the faculty, unless specifically designated as confidential and closed in accordance with University policy.

Section 4. Standing Committees.
