Catalogs & Schedules

The requirements for your degree are determined by the catalog under which you began studying at Georgia State. However, other policy changes will affect you, so be sure to read through the current catalog at least once per year.

These catalogs provide information regarding all of the undergraduate and graduate programs offered by Georgia State University during the 2012-2013 academic year. The statements made in this catalog are for informational purposes only and should not be construed as the basis of a contract between a student and this institution.

Although Georgia State University has made every reasonable effort to present the information contained in this catalog with factual accuracy, no responsibility is assumed by the university for editorial or clerical errors. At the time of production and posting to the website, the text of this catalog most accurately described the course offerings, programs, faculty listings, policies, procedures, regulations, and requirements of the university. While the provisions of this catalog will ordinarily be applied as stated, Georgia State University reserves the right to change any provisions listed in this catalog, including but not limited to academic requirements for graduation, without actual notice to individual students. Every effort will be made to keep students advised of any such changes. Information on changes will be available online in Catalog Addenda. Changes by colleges are also available in the Office of the Dean. It is the student’s individual responsibility to be aware of current graduation requirements for his or her particular degree program.
