Do Big Things

With 100 fields of study and 250 degree options, Georgia State offers the educational opportunity that’s right for you.

Academics

Schools and Colleges
- Andrew Young School of Policy Studies
- Byrdine F Lewis School of Nursing and Health Professions
- College of Arts and Sciences
- College of Education
- College of Law
- Honors College
- J. Mack Robinson College of Business
- School of Public Health

Student/faculty ratio: 20/1

Rankings
Georgia State has more than 50 nationally and internationally ranked programs, including these top U.S. programs:
- #2 Best JD/MA in Philosophy
- #3 Best Health Law Program
- #4 Best Program in Public Finance and Budgeting
- #4 Best Risk Management and Insurance Program
- #5 Best Value Law School
- #8 Best Computer Information Systems Program
- #12 Best Real Estate Program
- #12 Best Program in City Management and Urban Policy
- #12 Best Program in Nonprofit Management
- #13 Best Hospitality Program

A few things that make Georgia State stand out:
- Atlanta-Based Learning program that weaves the city into the classroom
- Nationally recognized Freshman Learning Communities program
- Internship and service opportunities in and around Atlanta

Honors College
Undergraduate students who meet high academic standards are eligible for Georgia State’s Honors College, a selective community of learning with advantages such as smaller classes, competitive scholarships, interdisciplinary options, designated housing, faculty mentoring, priority registration and more.
- Average student GPA of 3.8
- Average SAT of 1300
The Panther Predictor

Want to see if you have what it takes to become a Panther? Use this online calculator to determine the probability of freshman admissions prior to applying.

http://admissions.gsu.edu/panther-predictor

Campus Life

Where city life meets campus life for a unique student experience.
- More than 400 student organizations, including 29 fraternities and sororities
- Six campus dining locations
- Six student media outlets, including WRAS 88.5
- State-of-the-art Student Recreation Center
- 19 intramural sports, 23 sports clubs and the Touch the Earth outdoor recreation program

Housing Options
From traditional residence halls to loft-style apartments, Georgia State houses more than 4,100 students in a variety of options:
- University Commons
- Patton Hall
- University Lofts
- Piedmont North

Studying Abroad
- 755 students in study abroad in 2012/2013
- Academic programs on five continents
- 56 faculty-led study abroad programs in 27 countries
- 18 exchange programs in 10 countries
- 18 international student organizations

Athletics
The athletics program at Georgia State is a source of school spirit and pride for the university.
- 19 NCAA Division I teams play in the Sun Belt Conference and in the Football Bowl subdivision
- Football program plays in the Georgia Dome
- Nickname: Panthers
- Mascot name: Pounce
- Colors: Blue and White

Student Body
- Students from every county in Georgia, every state in the nation and more than 150 countries
- Ranked among the 15 most diverse universities in the nation
- More than 32,000 students: 75% undergraduate and 25% graduate students
- #1 in the U.S. for undergraduate degrees conferred to African-Americans
- #51 in the U.S. for undergraduate degrees conferred to Asians
- One of the top 100 Hispanic serving universities in the U.S.
- Ranked #1 in Georgia in undergraduate and graduate degrees conferred to African-American, Asian and Latino students
- More than 1,500 international students